

Question Time: how do we debate the important topics and issues in our lives?

Mary Somerset Webb
Expert on Money

Robin Shattock
Scientist

David Lammy
Labour MP for
Tottenham

[Intro to Question Time –
Vaccination debate – 10.40 minutes](#)

What is your first impression of Question Time and of the people taking part in the debate?

Rosie Jones
Comedian

Matt Hancock
Conservative MP
Government Minister

Question Time: how do we debate the important topics and issues in our lives?

Mary Somerset Webb
Expert on Money

David Lammy
Labour MP for
Tottenham

Rosie Jones
Comedian

Robin Shattock
Scientist

What does each debater bring to the topic?

Talk to your partner about the role and knowledge that each debater might bring to the debate.

For instance – Mary Somerset Webb might talk about how the Covid pandemic has made it difficult for people to manage their money.

Write a sentence for each debater in your booklet.

Matt Hancock
Conservative MP
Government Minister

Question Time: What makes a good debater?

David Lammy on being English

- Listens carefully to the caller
- Keeps his tone polite and stays calm
- Responds with clear points

MP Diane Abbott asks a question in Parliament

Speaks clearly

Really knows what her question is about

Asks a question with specific detail

Should Head Scarfs be banned - 3 minutes

Talks from a personal perspective

Remains calm when interrupted

Responds clearly to each point made

Question Time: When is debate not effective in changing minds?

- Jeremy Corbyn asks
A number of serious questions

- Prime Minister Cameron
Answers the first with Detail

- On the second question
Other MPs start to laugh

- Corbyn finishes a question
but the Prime Minister answers with pre made notes on the topic but does not answer the question.

- Prime Minister Cameron then starts to personally insult and the Conservative MP cheer his rudeness.

Prime Ministers Questions in Parliament

Why might people watching be put off by the way
That this debate was conducted?

1,
2,
3,

Using what you have seen and what you
Have discussed today
What would you say
are the 4 things that make a good debater?

1,

2,

3,

4,

The most important Thing is that

Question Time: When is debate not effective in changing minds?

Why might people watching be put off by the way
That this debate was conducted?

1, _____

2, _____

3, _____

Plenary

Using what you have seen and what you have discussed today what would you say are the 4 things that make a good debater?

1, _____

2, _____

3, _____

4, _____

The most important thing is that _____

Question Time: how do we debate the important topics and issues in our lives?

What is your first impression of Question Time? My first impression is that _____

Secondly _____

Finally, _____

Name: _____

Role and knowledge for the debate _____

Name: _____

Role and knowledge for the debate _____

Name: _____

Role and knowledge for the debate _____

Name: _____

Role and knowledge for the debate _____

Name: _____

Role and knowledge for the debate _____

Question Time: What makes a good debater?

- Listens carefully to the caller
- Keeps his tone polite and stays calm
- Responds with clear points

What does David Lammy do well? _____

How does he make an effective debater? _____

- Speaks clearly
- Really knows what her question is about
- Asks a question with specific detail

What does Diane Abbott do well? _____

How does she make an effective debater? _____

- Talks from a personal perspective
- Remains calm when interrupted
- Responds clearly to each point made

What does she do well? _____

How does he made an effective debater? _____

